

Hidden treasures

Schoonbeek Castle

This once fortified castle farm protected by marshes and a moat is now a privately owned, fairy-tale castle.

Groenendaal Castle

This rural castle is hidden in a beautiful piece of privately owned nature. So don't ring the bell. However, the waterfront is the ideal place to settle down with a picnic.

Edelhof Castle

This 19th-century mansion has a catering establishment in the former servants' buildings.

Jonckholt Fortress Ruins

The ruins of this medieval fortress can be admired in abundance. The foundations of the corner towers and walls are still visible.
